

Etton High Meadow Heritage Orchard list of trees - April 2021

Type	Variety	Live trees	Dead trees	Brief description
Apple	Allington Pippin	3	0	Dessert apple. 1884 Late Oct Nov - Dec. Stamford. Pollinator: Barnack Beauty
Apple	Annie Elizabeth	2	0	Regarded as one of the best stewing and baking apples. Leics 1857. Pollinator Barnack Beauty
Apple	Arthur Turner	1	0	Early season cooking apple. Berks 1912. Pollinator: Allington Pippin.
Apple	Ashmead's Kernel	1	0	Late season eating apple. Glos 1700. Intense sweet-sharp, good keeping quality and very attractive blossom. Pollinators Browns Seedling, Allington Pippin.
Apple	Barnack Beauty	5	0	Late season old English cooking apple. Flushed / striped, some russetting. Originated in Barnack c1840. Juicy sharp refreshing taste. Pollinators Lord Burghley, Norfolk Royal and Allington Pippin.
Apple	Barnack Orange Pippin	2	0	Raised from Barnack Beauty x Cox's Orange Pippin by W H Divers, Head Gardener at Belvoir Castle, in 1904. Medium sized, round fruit. Juicy dessert apple. Pick mid Oct. Pollinators: Allington Pippin and Egremont Russet.
Pear	Beurre Hardy	2	0	An outstanding eating pear. France C19th. Juicy and sweet. Harvest in October. Pollinators: Fondante d'Automne, Williams, Conference.
Apple	Blenheim Orange	5	0	Distinctive flavour and attractive large fruit. Can be eaten fresh but best as a cooking apple. Pick early October. Pollinators James Grieve and Arthur Turner. Oxfordshire 1740.
Apple	Braeburn	2	0	Originated in New Zealand in the 1950s. Eating apple with an overall sharp and refreshing flavour with a good balance of sweetness. Pick late August - Oct. Self-fertile.
Apple	Bramley Seedling	1	0	The most popular classic English cooking apple. Notts 1809. Pick in October. Pollinator- Braeburn
Apple	Brown's Seedling	4	0	Stamford 1874. Late season dual purpose eating/cooking apple. Quite sweet. Pollinators: Annie Elizabeth and Barnack Beauty.
Apple	Charles Ross	3	0	Berks 1890. Juicy, dual purpose. Harvest mid-season. Pollinators: Allington Pippin, Arthur Turner.
Apple	Cox's Orange	1	0	Bucks 1825. Eating/cooking apple. Pick mid- September. Pollinator Barnack Beauty.
Plum	Czar	1	0	Good cooking plum. Excellent colour and flavour. Herts 1871. Self fertile. 4-5m mature ht
Apple	Egremont Russet	4	0	Most popular of the russet apples. Very distinctive rich nutty flavour. England 1872. Pick mid-season. Pollinator: James Grieve.
Apple	Fiesta	4	0	Juicy sweet eating apple. Kent 1972. Pick late September. Pollinators: Allington Pippin and Barnack Beauty.
Apple	George Carpenter	1	0	Surrey 1902. Mid season eating apple. Juicy quite sweet. Raised from Blenheim Orange and King of the Pippins. Pollinators Allington Pippin and Barnack Beauty.
Apple	Grenadier	1	0	England 1862. Good early cooking apple. Pick mid-August. Pollinators Allington Pippin and Barnack Beauty.

Apple	James Grieve	6	0	Scotland 1893. A good heavy cropping early season dual purpose apple. Pollinators: Egremont Russet and Allington Pippin.
Apple	Lady Hollendale	3	0	Cambs 1918. Bright red early dessert apple with a sharp flavour. Pick in August. Pollinators: Arthur Turner and Egremont Russet.
Apple	Laxton's Superb	2	0	Beds 1897. Late sweet dessert apple with some of the aromatic flavour of Cox. Pollinators: Allington Pippin and Barnack Beauty.
Apple	Lord Burghley	6	0	Stamford 1834. A dark red flushed late dessert apple which keeps very well. Pollinators: Barnack Beauty and Norfolk Royal.
Apple	Lord Peckover	1	0	Cambs 1926. Sweet early season eating apple. Pollinators: Egremont Russet and others
	NewtonWonder	1	0	Derbyshire 1870. Pick mid-October. Dual purpose. Pollinators: Barnack Beauty, Allington Pippin, Annie Elizabeth
Apple	Norfolk Royal	5	0	Norfolk 1908. Bright red sweet dessert apple. Pick mid-September. Pollinators: Schoolmaster, Allington Pippin, Barnack Beauty
Apple	Peasgood's Nonsuch	3	0	Grantham 1853. Cooking apple excellent for baked apple. Pick mid-September. Pollinators: Allington Pippin, Barnack Beauty
Apple	Schoolmaster	3	0	Lincs 1855. A late cooking apple, sharp taste. Pollinators: Allington Pippin and Fiesta. Pick mid-October.
Plum	Willingham Gage	3	0	Cambs. A very sweet greengage very similar to Old Greengage. Pick mid-August. Pollinator Czar
?	No label	5	0
Total		81	0

Legend	Lincolnshire
	Cambridgeshire